COMPLAINT

WEINSTEIN, J.
POHORELSKY, M.J.

Plaintiff, by her attorneys, PARKER WAICHMAN ALONSO LLP, on behalf of herself individually, upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned, alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, because the amount in controversy as to the Plaintiff exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs, and because Defendant, XANODYNE PHARMACEUTICALS, INC. is incorporated and has its principal places of business in states other than the state in which the named Plaintiff resides.

2. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the remaining common law and state claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred, in part, in the Eastern District of New York.

NATURE OF THE CASE

4. This action is brought on behalf of Plaintiff, KRISTINE ESPOSITO, who was prescribed, purchased and correctly used DARVOCET, also known generically as Propoxyphene Napsylate and Acetaminophen.

5. Defendant, XANODYNE PHARMACEUTICALS, INC (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant") designed, researched, manufactured, tested, advertised, promoted, marketed, sold, and distributed DARVOCET for use as a prescription pain management medication.

6. Defendant concealed their knowledge of DARVOCET's defects, from Plaintiff, the FDA, the public in general and/or the medical community specifically.

7. When warning of safety and risks of DARVOCET, Defendant negligently and/or fraudulently represented to the medical and healthcare community, the Food and Drug Administration (hereinafter referred to as "FDA"), to Plaintiff and the public in general, that DARVOCET had been tested and was found to be safe and/or effective for its indicated use.

8. These representations were made by Defendant with the intent of defrauding and deceiving Plaintiff, the public in general, and the medical and healthcare community in particular, and were made with the intent of inducing the public in general, and the medical community in particular, to recommend, dispense and/or purchase DARVOCET for use as a prescription pain management medication, all of which evinced a callous, reckless, willful, depraved indifference to health, safety and welfare of the Plaintiff herein.

9. Defendant negligently and improperly failed to perform sufficient tests, if any, concerning DARVOCET's potential to cause cardiotoxicity and, more specifically, potentially fatal cardiac arrhythmias, during clinical trials, forcing Plaintiff, and her physicians, hospitals, and/or the FDA, to rely on safety information that applies to other prescription pain management medications, which does not entirely and/or necessarily apply to the DARVOCET whatsoever.

10. As a result of the defective nature of DARVOCET, those persons who use and/or used and relied on DARVOCET have suffered and/or are at a greatly increased risk of serious and dangerous side effects including, including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

11. Plaintiff herein has sustained certain of the above health consequences due to her use of DARVOCET.

12. Defendant concealed its knowledge of the defects in its product from the Plaintiff, and her physicians, hospitals, pharmacists, the FDA, and the public in general.

13. Consequently, Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages as a result of her use of DARVOCET, which has caused, may cause, and/or will continue to cause Plaintiff to suffer and/or be at greatly increased risk of serious and dangerous side effects including, including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

16. Plaintiff, KRISTINE ESPOSITO, was prescribed DARVOCET for pain management in or about February 2010.

17. As result of using Defendant's drug DARVOCET, Plaintiff KRISTINE ESPOSITO, was caused to suffer cardiovascular injuries and cardiac arrhythmias, including but limited to, wide complex tachycardia in or about February 2010.

19. In order to treat her arrhythmia and life threatening cardiac condition, plaintiff, KRISTINE ESPOSITO, underwent painful electrocardioversion and numerous other invasive cardiac procedures including cardiac ablation.

20. Plaintiff, KRISTINE ESPOSITO, was caused to sustain severe, permanent and life threatening personal injuries, pain, suffering, emotional distress, lifelong fear of premature death and the need for continued lifelong cardiac monitoring, treatment and medications.

21. The injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff, KRISTINE ESPOSITO, were caused by Defendant's drug DARVOCET.

24. Upon information and belief Defendant XANODYNE PHARMACEUTICALS, INC., expected or should have expected that its acts would have consequences within the United States of America, and Sunnyside, New York and within the confines of the Eastern District of New York in particular and derived substantial revenue from interstate commerce.

25. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times Defendant XANODYNE PHARMACEUTICALS, INC., was in the business of and did design, research, manufacture, test, advertise, promote, market, sell and distribute DARVOCET for use as a prescription management medication

26. Upon information and belief, Defendant XANODYNE HARMACEUTICALS, INC., is the holder of approved New Drug Application for DARVOCET.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

27. At all relevant times, Defendant was and remains in the business of and did design, research, manufacture, test, advertise, promote, market, sell, distribute, and/or have recently acquired the Defendant who have designed, researched, manufactured, tested, advertised, promoted, marketed, sold and distributed DARVOCET for use as a prescription pain management medication.

28. At all times relevant, defendant focused its sales on pain management products including DARVOCET because the area of pain management offers attractive commercial opportunities in significant markets in the United States, see http://www.xanodyne.com/strategy.asp (as of December 9, 2010).

29. At all times relevant, defendant affirmatively decided not to take part in full discovery research of its products because defendant believed that it was more beneficial for it to advance products quickly through abbreviated developmental pathways in order to decrease the time and cost of bringing a new drug to market, see http://www.xanodyne.com/strategy.asp (as of December 9, 2010).

30. By using a strategy of moving its products through the research and development process expeditiously defendant believes it can reach its goal of becoming a leading integrated specialty pharmaceutical company that develops and commercializes new products for significant markets in pain management, http://www.xanodyne.com/strategy.asp (as of December 9, 2010).

31. About 10 million people in the U.S. received prescriptions for DARVOCET and Propoxyphene related drugs, in 2009 according to the FDA.

32. Upon information and belief, Adverse Event data maintained by the FDA indicates staggering, serious Adverse Events, including, heart arrhythmias, atrial fibrillation, tachycardia, bradycardia, myocardial infarction, and/or sudden death.

33. Defendant ignored the correlation between the use of DARVOCET and the increased risk of developing potentially fatal heart arrhythmias, despite the wealth of scientific and medical evidence available.

34. In June 2009, the European Medicines Agency (EMEA) recommended that the marketing authorizations for Propoxyphene be withdrawn across the European Union for safety concerns.

35. Despite being petitioned by public interest groups to investigate whether DARVOCET was linked to serious and potentially fatal heart arrhythmias, Defendant refused to do so until July 2009, when it was ordered by the FDA to conduct a safety study assessing unanswered questions about the effects of DARVOCET on the heart.

36. Plaintiff, KRISTINE ESPOSITO, experienced a near fatal cardiac arrhythmia as a result of taking DARVOCET in February 2010.

37. The results of the study order by the FDA indicated that even when taken at recommended doses, Propoxyphene causes significant changes to the electrical activity of the heart. These changes, which can be seen on an electrocardiogram (ECG), can increase the risk for serious abnormal heart rhythms that have been linked to serious adverse effects, including sudden death.

38. On November 19, 2010, the FDA announced that defendant, Xanodyne Pharmaceuticals, Inc., had agreed to halt all U.S. Marketing of DARVOCET after it was determined that the drugs benefits were outweighed by the risks associated with its use, specifically the potential of the drug to cause serious and potentially fatal heart arrhythmias.

39. The use of DARVOCET creates unique and dangerous risks compared to other prescription pain management medications. These risks include, including inter alia heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, and other adverse cardiovascular events, including sudden death.

40. The Defendant did not provide adequate warnings to doctors, the health care community and the general public about the increased risk of serious adverse events that are described herein and that have been repeated by the medical community.

41. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has developed and/or is at extremely high risk of serious and dangerous side effects including, including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

42. Plaintiff has endured and continue to suffer the mental anguish and psychological trauma of living with the knowledge that she has and/or may suffer serious and dangerous side effects including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

43. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been severely and permanently injured, including the risk of premature death, and will require more constant and continuous medical monitoring and treatment than prior to her use of Defendant's drug DARVOCET.

FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS

44. Defendant had an obligation to comply with the law in the manufacture, design, and sale of DARVOCET.

AS AND FOR THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST THE DEFENDANT (NEGLIGENCE)

48. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of this Complaint contained in each of the foregoing paragraphs inclusive, with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

49. 50. Defendant failed to exercise ordinary care in the designing, researching, manufacturing, marketing, supplying, promoting, packaging, sale, testing, quality assurance, quality control, and/or distribution of DARVOCET into interstate commerce in that Defendant knew or should have known that using DARVOCET created a high risk of unreasonable, dangerous side effects, including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

AS AND FOR THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
AGAINST THE DEFENDANT
(STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY)

61. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of this Complaint contained in each of the foregoing paragraphs inclusive, with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

62. At all times herein mentioned, the Defendant designed, researched, manufactured, tested, advertised, promoted, marketed, sold, distributed DARVOCET as hereinabove described that was used by the Plaintiff.

63. That DARVOCET was expected to and did reach the usual consumers, handlers, and persons coming into contact with said product without substantial change in the condition in which it was produced, manufactured, sold, distributed, and marketed by the Defendant.

64. At those times, DARVOCET was in an unsafe, defective, and inherently dangerous condition, which was dangerous to users, and in particular, the Plaintiff herein.

65. The prescription pain management medication, DARVOCET, designed, researched, manufactured, tested, advertised, promoted, marketed, sold and distributed by Defendant was defective in design or formulation in that, when it left the hands of the manufacturer and/or suppliers, the foreseeable risks exceeded the benefits associated with the design or formulation of DARVOCET.

66. The prescription pain management medication, DARVOCET, designed, researched, manufactured, tested, advertised, promoted, marketed, sold and distributed by Defendant was defective in design and/or formulation, in that, when it left the hands of the Defendant manufacturers and/or suppliers, it was unreasonably dangerous, and it was more dangerous than an ordinary consumer would expect.

67. At all times herein mentioned, DARVOCET was in a defective condition and unsafe, and Defendant knew or had reason to know that said product was defective and unsafe, especially when used in the form and manner as provided by the Defendant.

68. Defendant knew, or should have known that at all times herein mentioned its DARVOCET was in a defective condition, and was and is inherently dangerous and unsafe.

69. At the time of the Plaintiff's use of DARVOCET, DARVOCET was being used for the purposes and in a manner normally intended, namely for pain management.

70. Defendant with this knowledge voluntarily designed its DARVOCET in a dangerous condition for use by the public, and in particular the Plaintiff.

71. Defendant had a duty to create a product that was not unreasonably dangerous for its normal, intended use.

72. Defendant created a product unreasonably dangerous for its normal, intended use.

Defendant was defective due to inadequate post-marketing surveillance and/or warnings because, after Defendant knew or should have known of the risks of serious side effects including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences, and they failed to provide adequate warnings to users or consumers of the product, and continued to improperly advertise, market and/or promote its product, DARVOCET.

80. By reason of the foregoing, the Defendant became strictly liable in tort to the Plaintiff for the manufacturing, marketing, promoting, distribution, and selling of a defective product, DARVOCET.

81. Defendant's defective design, manufacturing defect, and inadequate warnings of DARVOCET were acts that amount to willful, wanton, and/or reckless conduct by Defendant.

82. That said defects in Defendant's drug DARVOCET were a substantial factor in causing Plaintiff's injuries.

83. As a result of the foregoing acts and omissions, the Plaintiff was and still is caused to suffer and/or is at a greatly increased risk of serious and dangerous side effects including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

84. As a result of the foregoing acts and omissions the Plaintiff requires and/or will require more health care and services and did incur medical, health, incidental and related expenses. Plaintiff is informed and believes and further alleges that Plaintiff will in the future be required to obtain further medical and/or hospital care, attention, and services.

87. Defendant expressly warranted that DARVOCET was safe and well accepted by users.

88. The prescription pain management medication DARVOCET does not conform to these express representations because DARVOCET is not safe and has numerous serious side effects, many of which were not accurately warned about by Defendant. As a direct and proximate result of the breach of said warranties, Plaintiff suffered and/or will continue to suffer severe and permanent personal injuries, harm and economic loss.

89. Plaintiff did rely on the express warranties of the Defendant herein.

90. Members of the medical community, including physicians and other healthcare professionals, relied upon the representations and warranties of the Defendant for use of DARVOCET as prescription pain medication in recommending, prescribing, and/or dispensing DARVOCET.

91. The Defendant herein breached the aforesaid express warranties, as its drug DARVOCET was defective.

92. Defendant expressly represented to Plaintiff, her physicians, healthcare providers, and/or the FDA that DARVOCET was safe and fit for use for the purposes intended, that it was of merchantable quality, that it did not produce any dangerous side effects in excess of those risks associated with other prescription pain management medications, that the side effects it did produce were accurately reflected in the warnings and that it was adequately tested and fit for its intended use.

93. Defendant knew or should have known that, in fact, said representations and warranties were false, misleading and untrue in that DARVOCET was not safe and fit for the use intended, and, in fact, produced serious injuries to the users that were not accurately identified and represented by Defendant.

94. As a result of the foregoing acts and/or omissions the Plaintiff, was and still is caused to suffer and/or is at a greatly increased risk of serious and dangerous side effects including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

95. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been severely and permanently injured, including the potential of premature death, and will require more constant and continuous medical monitoring and treatment than prior to her use of Defendant's drug DARVOCET.

96. As a result of the foregoing acts and omissions the Plaintiff requires and/or will require more health care and services and did incur medical, health, incidental and related expenses. Plaintiff is informed and believes and further alleges that Plaintiff will in the future be required to obtain further medical and/or hospital care, attention, and services.

97. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged as against the Defendant in the sum of TEN MILLION DOLLARS ($10,000,000.00).

AS AND FOR THE

101. The Defendant impliedly represented and warranted to the users of DARVOCET and their physicians, healthcare providers, and/or the FDA that DARVOCET was safe and of merchantable quality and fit for the ordinary purpose for which said product was to be used.

102. That said representations and warranties aforementioned were false, misleading, and inaccurate in that DARVOCET was unsafe, unreasonably dangerous, improper, not of merchantable quality, and defective.

103. Plaintiff, and/or members of the medical community and/or healthcare professionals did rely on said implied warranty of merchantability of fitness for a particular use and purpose.

104. Plaintiff and her physicians and healthcare professionals reasonably relied upon the skill and judgment of Defendant as to whether DARVOCET was of merchantable quality and safe and fit for its intended use.

105. The prescription pain management medication DARVOCET was placed into the stream of commerce by the Defendant in a defective, unsafe, and inherently dangerous condition and the product and accompanying materials were expected to and did reach users, handlers, and persons coming into contact with said products without substantial change in the condition in which they were sold.

106. The Defendant herein breached the aforesaid implied warranties, as its drug DARVOCET was not fit for its intended purposes and uses.

107. (FRAUDULENT MISREPRESENTATION)

110. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of this Complaint contained in each of the foregoing paragraphs inclusive, with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

111. The Defendant falsely and fraudulently represented to the medical and healthcare community, and to the Plaintiff, and/or the FDA, and the public in general, that said product, DARVOCET, had been tested and was found to be safe and/or effective for prescription pain management.

112. The representations made by Defendant were, in fact, false.

113. When said representations were made by Defendant, they knew those representations to be false and it willfully, wantonly and recklessly disregarded whether the representations were true.

product, DARVOCET, for use as a means of prescription pain management, all of which evinced a callous, reckless, willful, depraved indifference to the health, safety and welfare of the Plaintiff herein.

117. Defendant knew and was aware or should have been aware that DARVOCET had not been sufficiently tested, was defective in nature, and/or that it lacked adequate and/or sufficient warnings.

118. Defendant knew or should have known that DARVOCET had a potential to, could, and would cause severe and grievous injury to the users of said product, and that it was inherently dangerous in a manner that exceeded any purported, inaccurate, and/or down-played warnings.

119. Defendant brought DARVOCET to the market, and acted fraudulently, wantonly and maliciously to the detriment of the Plaintiff.

120. As a result of the foregoing acts and omissions, the Plaintiff was and still is caused to suffer and/or is at a greatly increased risk of serious and dangerous side effects including, inter alia, heart arrhythmias, myocardial infarction, other adverse cardiovascular events and/or sudden death, as well as other severe and personal injuries which are permanent and lasting in nature, physical pain and mental anguish, including diminished enjoyment of life, as well as the need for lifelong medical treatment, monitoring and/or medications, and fear of developing any of the above named health consequences.

121. As a result of the foregoing acts and omissions the Plaintiff requires and/or will require more health care and services and did incur medical, health, incidental and related expenses. Plaintiff is informed and believes and further alleges that Plaintiff will in the future be required to obtain further medical and/or hospital care, attention, and services.

122. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged as against the Defendant in the sum of TEN MILLION DOLLARS ($10,000,000.00).

AS AND FOR THE SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
AGAINST THE DEFENDANT
(FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT)

123. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of this Complaint contained in each of the foregoing paragraphs inclusive, with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

124. At all times during the course of dealing between Defendant and Plaintiff, and/or Plaintiff's healthcare providers, and/or the FDA, Defendant misrepresented the safety of DARVOCET for its intended use.

125. At all times during the course of dealing between Defendant and Plaintiff, and/or Plaintiff's healthcare providers, and/or the FDA, Defendant misrepresented the risk of cardiotoxicity caused by DARVOCET.

but not limited to the heightened risks of an adverse cardiovascular event, such as a heart arrhythmia, myocardial infarction or sudden death.

129. Defendant had sole access to material facts concerning the defective nature of the product and its propensity to cause serious and dangerous side effects, and hence, cause damage to persons who used DARVOCET, including the Plaintiff, in particular.

130. Defendant's concealment and omissions of material facts concerning, inter alia, the safety of DARVOCET was made purposefully, willfully, wantonly, and/or recklessly, to mislead Plaintiff, and their physicians, hospitals and healthcare providers into reliance, continued use of DARVOCET, and actions thereon, and to cause them to purchase, prescribe, and/or dispense DARVOCET and/or use the product.

131. Defendant knew that Plaintiff, and her physicians, hospitals, healthcare providers, and/or the FDA had no way to determine the truth behind Defendant's concealment and omissions, and that these included material omissions of facts surrounding DARVOCET, as set forth herein.

132. Plaintiff, as well as her doctors, healthcare providers, and/or hospitals reasonably relied on facts revealed which negligently, fraudulently and/or purposefully did not include facts that were concealed and/or omitted by Defendant.
